Administration (SIRVA)

Jerome A. Konkell, Samster, Konkell & Safran, S.C., Milwaukee, WI, for petitioner.

Claudia Barnes Gangi, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 11, 2018, Laurent Jones filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered from a left Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (SIRVA) following his receipt of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 8, 2016. Petition at 5. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 3, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner’s claim meets the Table criteria for SIRVA and that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1, 6. Specifically, Petitioner “had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration that would explain the alleged signs, symptoms, examination findings, and/or diagnostic studies occurring after vaccine administration; he suffered the onset of pain within forty-eight hours of vaccine administration; his pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain petitioner's symptoms." Id. at 6. Respondent further agrees that "the case was timely filed, that the vaccine was received in the United States, and that petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of his injury for more than six months after vaccine administration." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
